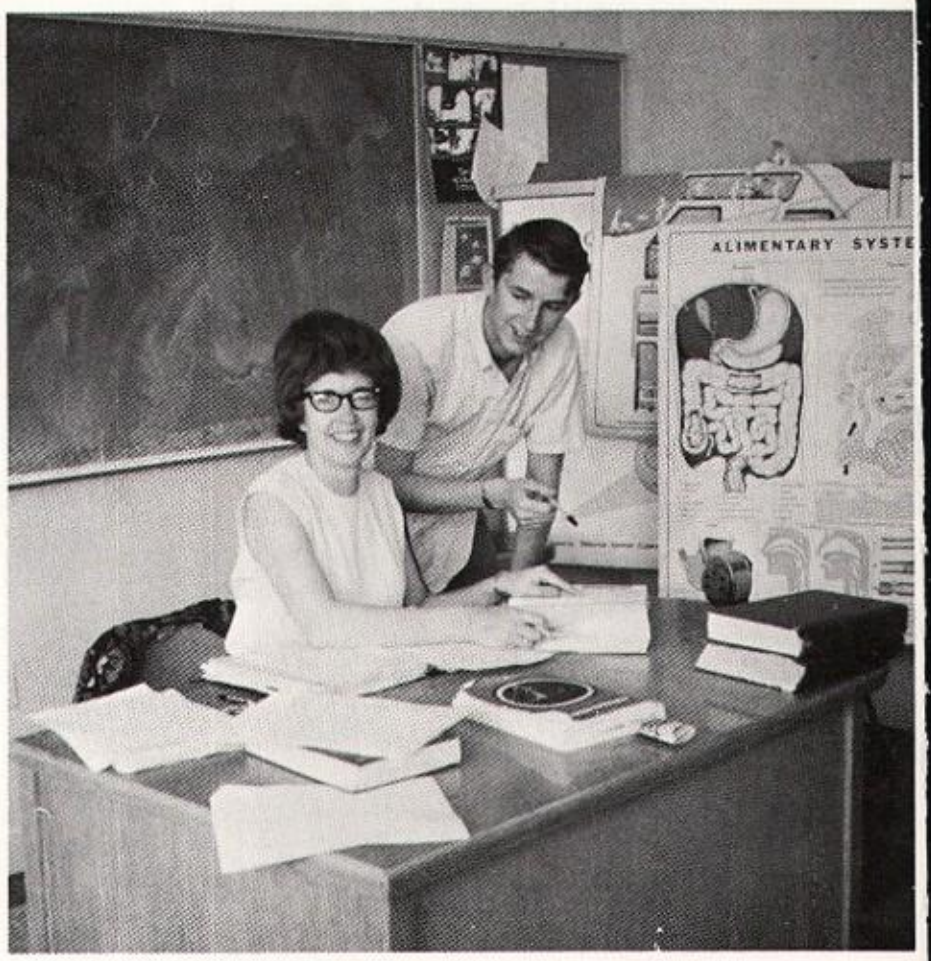
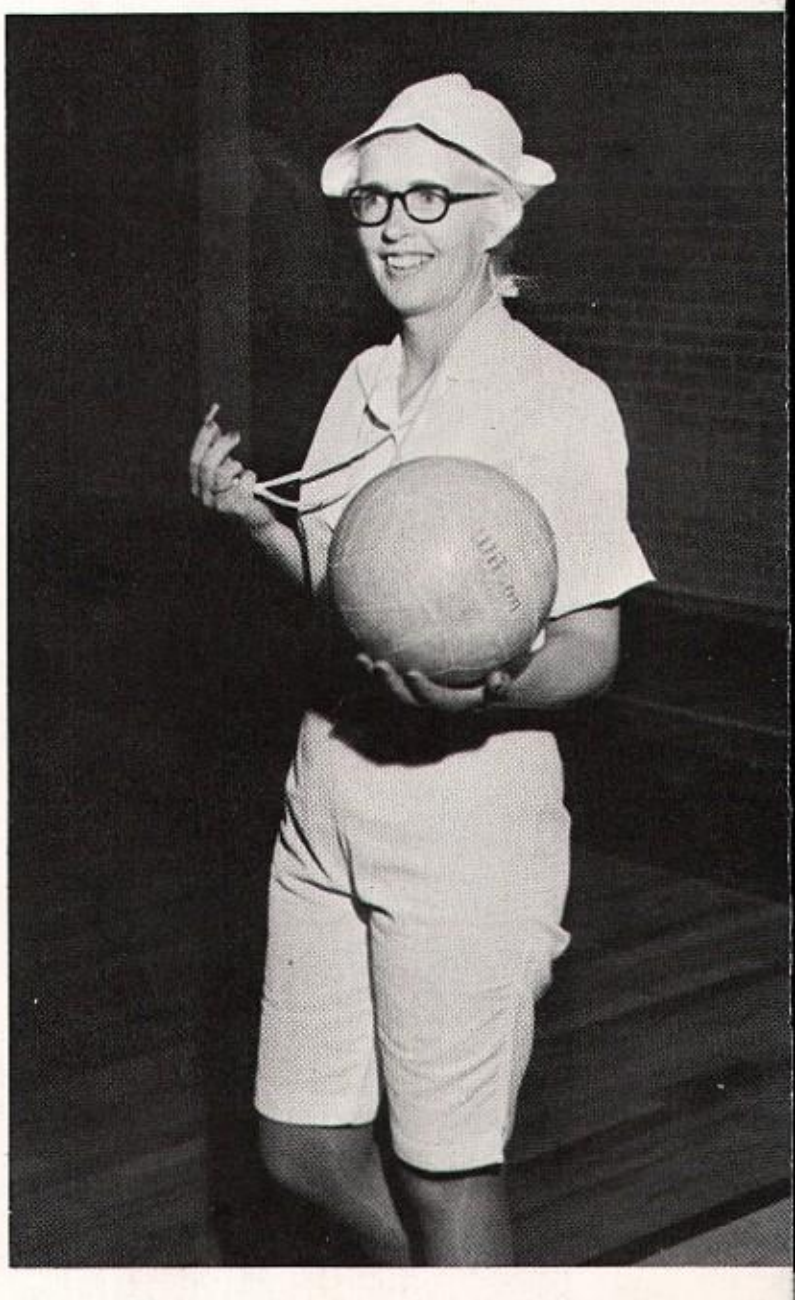
Who Doesn't Know . . .



. . . Mrs. Henderson?



There isn't a student in Marsh Valley who doesn't know Mrs. Henderson. Always energetic, she is a familiar sight at a football game, with her umbrella in wet weather and her well-known coffee jug in any weather. Or at a track meet, you can find her braving the blustry spring wind, timing the girls on the hundred yard dash or the 440 relay. In the gym she can be found refereeing the G.A.A. games, and all year round she teaches P.E., health, general science, and serves as adviser to the drill team. But no matter how busy she is, she can always stop to talk a minute, which is one reason why all the students think she's just great.

Besides being a good friend to everyone, Mrs. Henderson is an outstanding teacher. She devotes much of her time and effort to high school activities and outside events. For her devotion and faithfulness, Mrs. Henderson deserves a great deal of honor and gratitude from us, the students, and everyone around her. We certainly will never forget her. How can we repay all that she has done for Marsh Valley? As only a small token we dedicate this Marshopolitan to a wonderful person, a memorable teacher, and our friend. . .

Mrs. Helen Anderson

Vicke –
Best of luck
to you in all
you do.

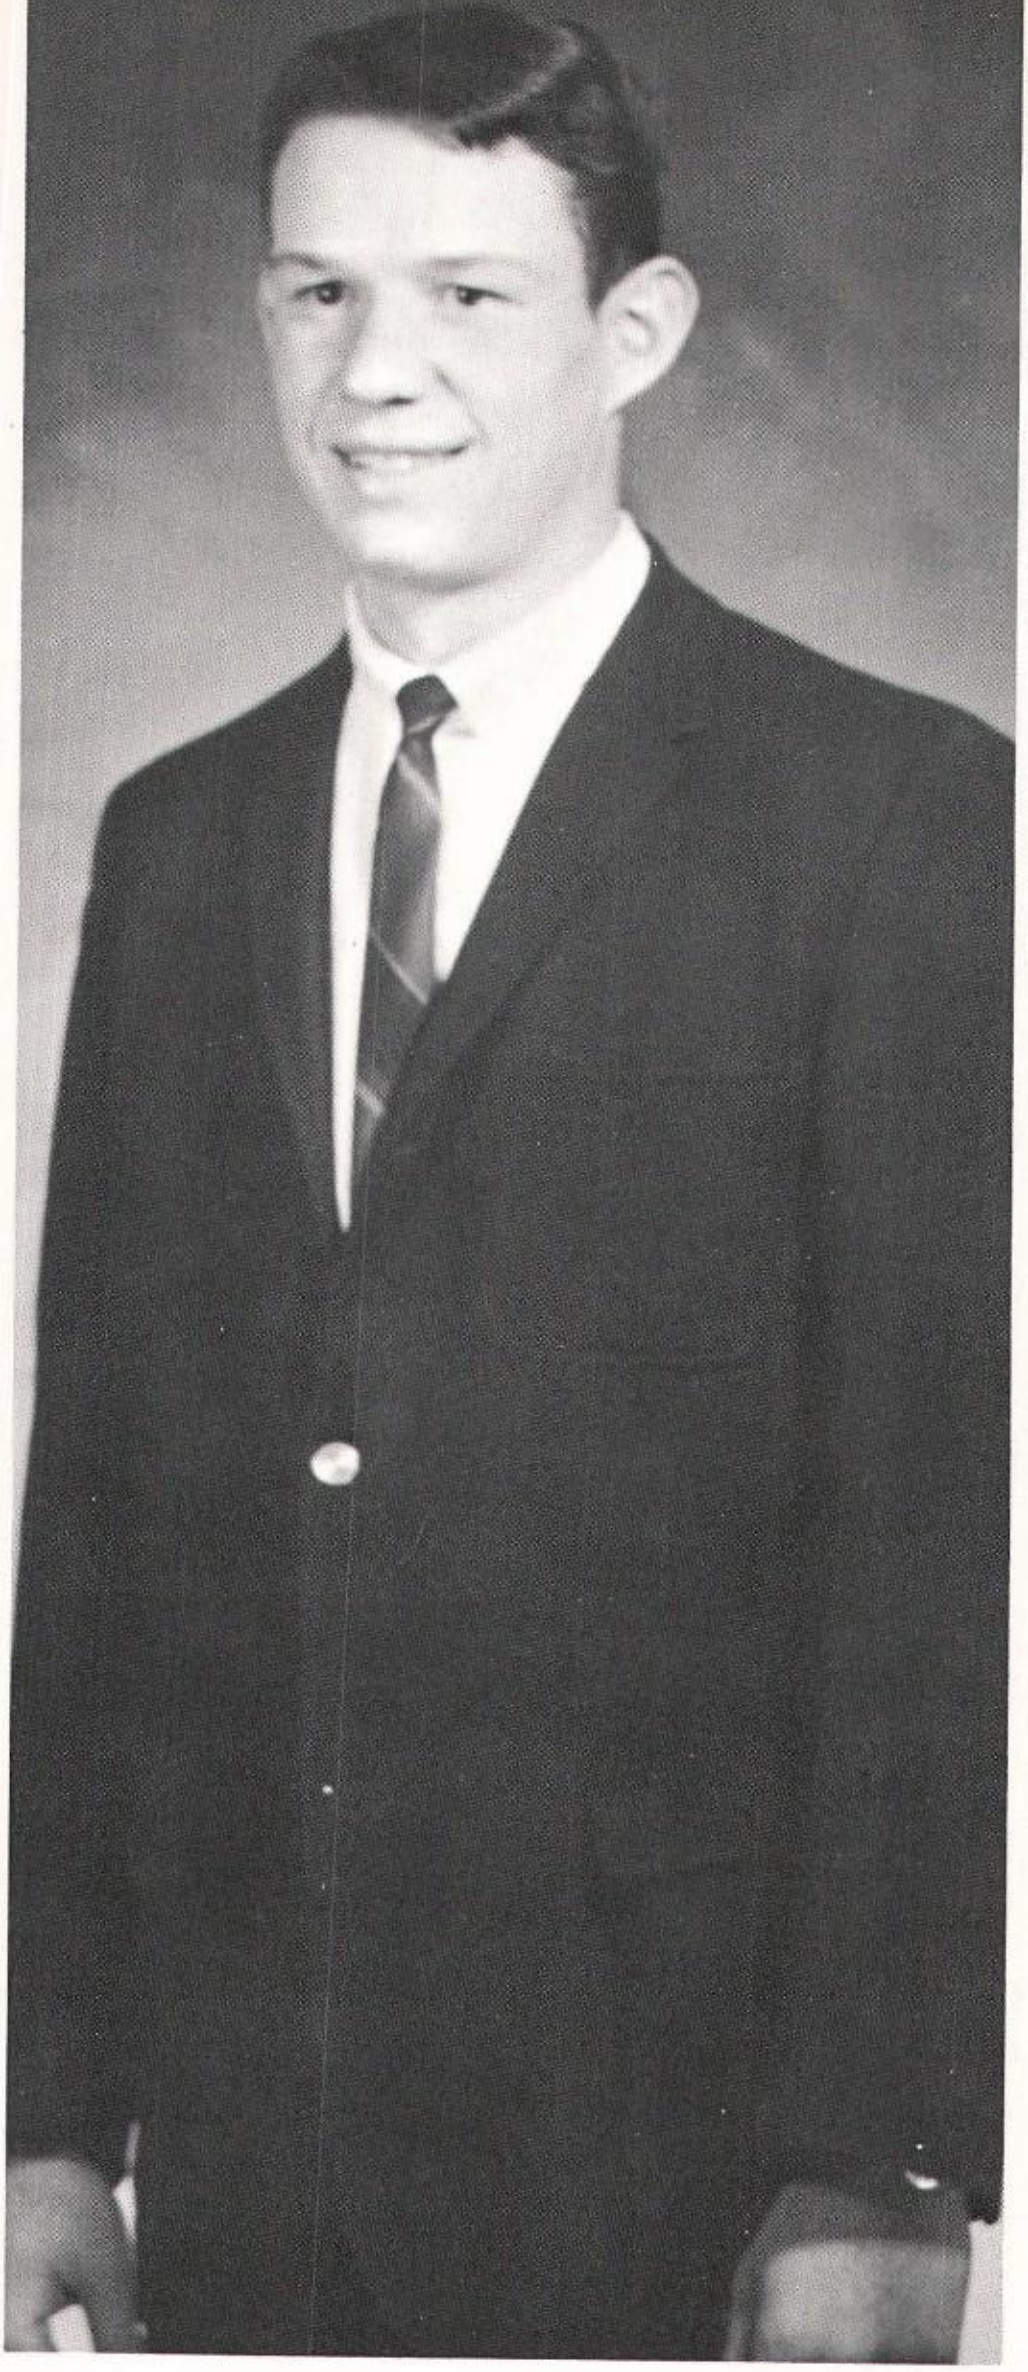
Robert Stoddard
Student Body President

All I can say to Marsh Valley is thanks. Thank you for the excitement of the athletic events, for the opportunity of learning, for the experience of working with people, and most of all, the chance to represent Marsh Valley in various school functions. Both the mistakes and the accomplishments that have come in the past four years here at Marsh Valley will be helpful guides, not only in my future but to the entire graduating class of 1968.

I would like to make a challenge to all the underclassmen to take part in all activities of our school and keep enthusiasm in all organizations. With enthusiasm, Marsh Valley will stay a high quality school and always stand out above all the others.

Bob Stoddard



Dennis Dahlke

Vice President

My serving as Student Body Vice-President will always be a cherished memory for me. I am proud to be a part of Marsh Valley's Student Government. I hope that we all set our goals high to keep Marsh Valley at the top.

WOW! Look at those legs!

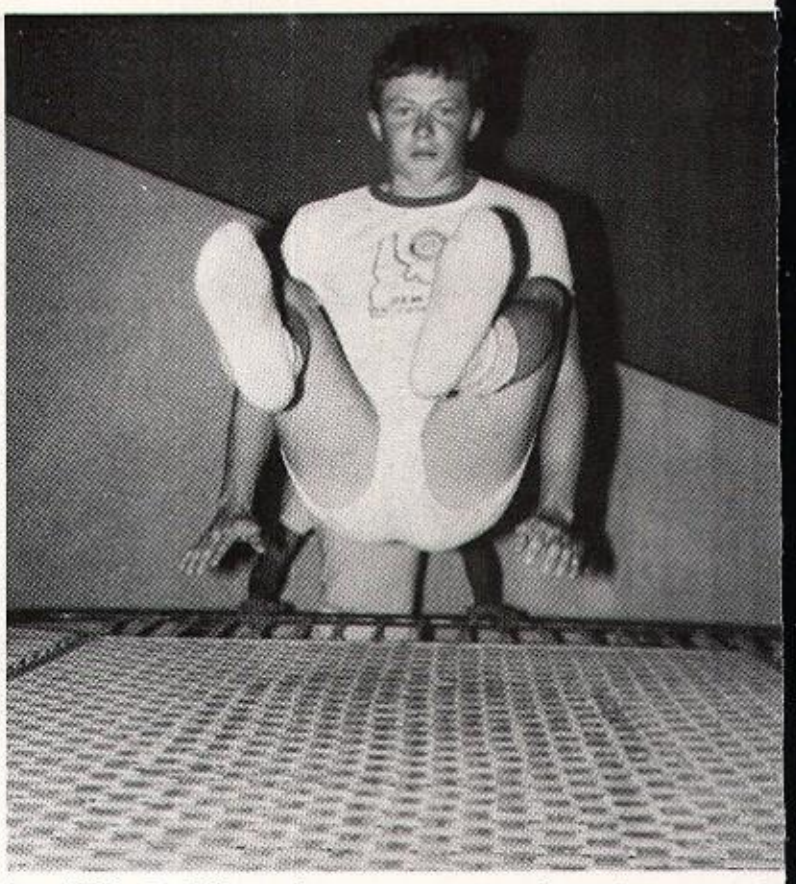
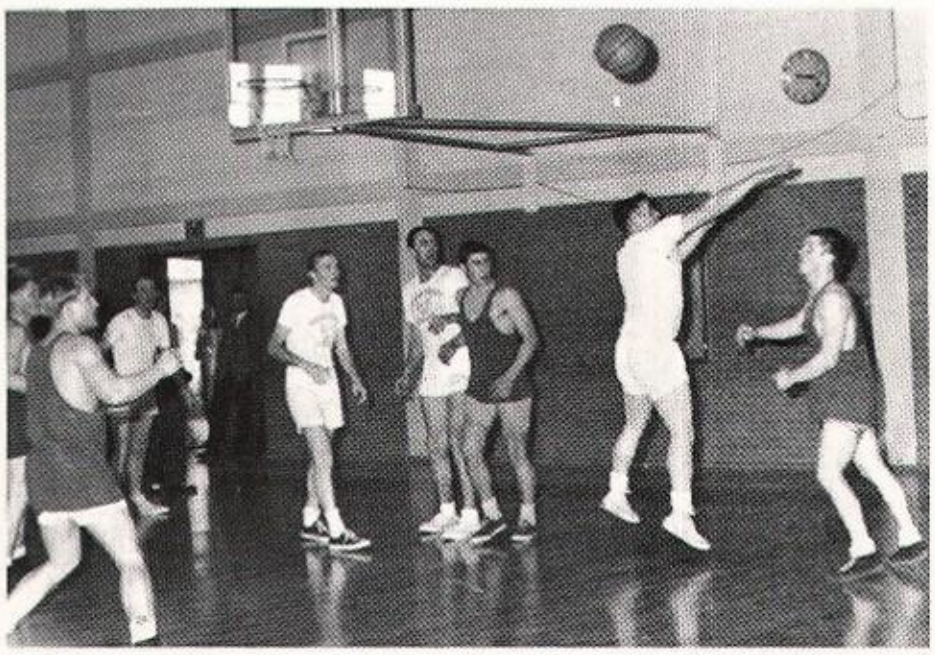
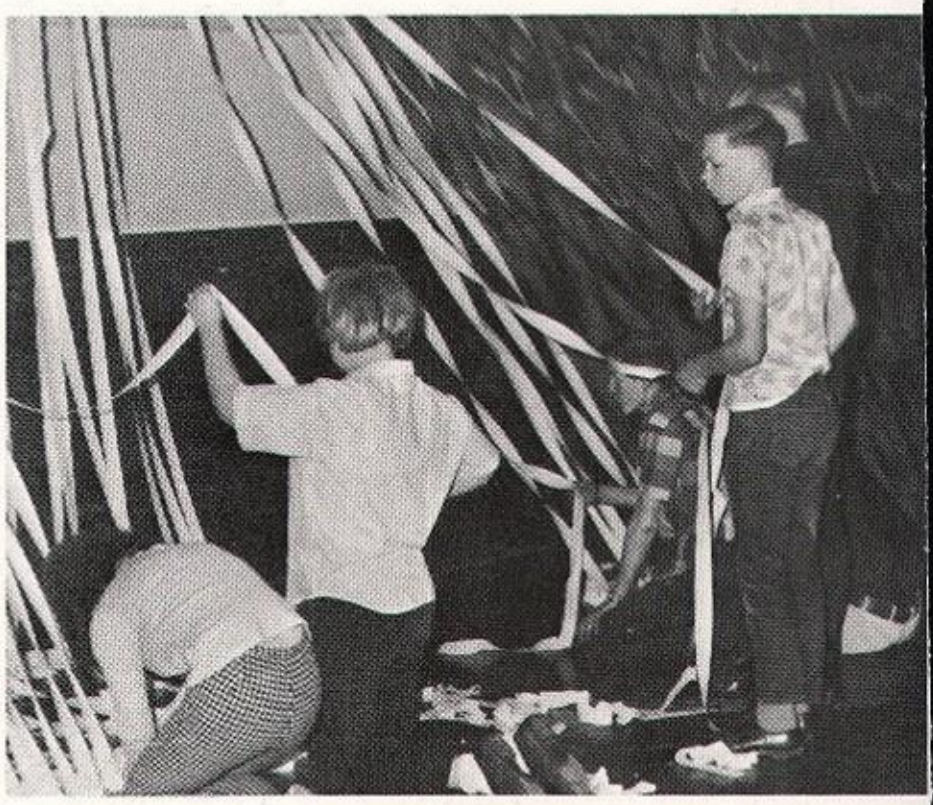
QUESTION: What is bald-headed and found at Marsh Valley only during the wrestling season?
ANSWER: A Bald Eagle.



As Bill Dahlke demonstrates, jumping on the trampoline isn't always done with the feet.



At the close of the basketball season, the Lettermen and the faculty played one last basketball game, which resulted in defeat for the vengeful seniors and many laughs for the onlooking student body.



During classes, industrious juniors worked together putting up Junior Prom decorations, which were blue & white.

Herpetologist Clyde Peeling, a member of the National School Assemblies, introduces his pet alligator Herbie to the audience.

Ron Proctor, LaDeana Stephenson, Nancy Nadolski, and Larry Naef, members of the newspaper staff, examine their latest edition of the Talon.

Strong and mighty seniors demand respect from oafs, serfs, and sophomores.

"In my opinion, this compound relates to the basic-"
"It's definitely a great scientific breakthrough."
"I'm in the wrong room. Where's U.S. History?"
"However, according to Einstein's 12 Easy Steps to Chemistry-"

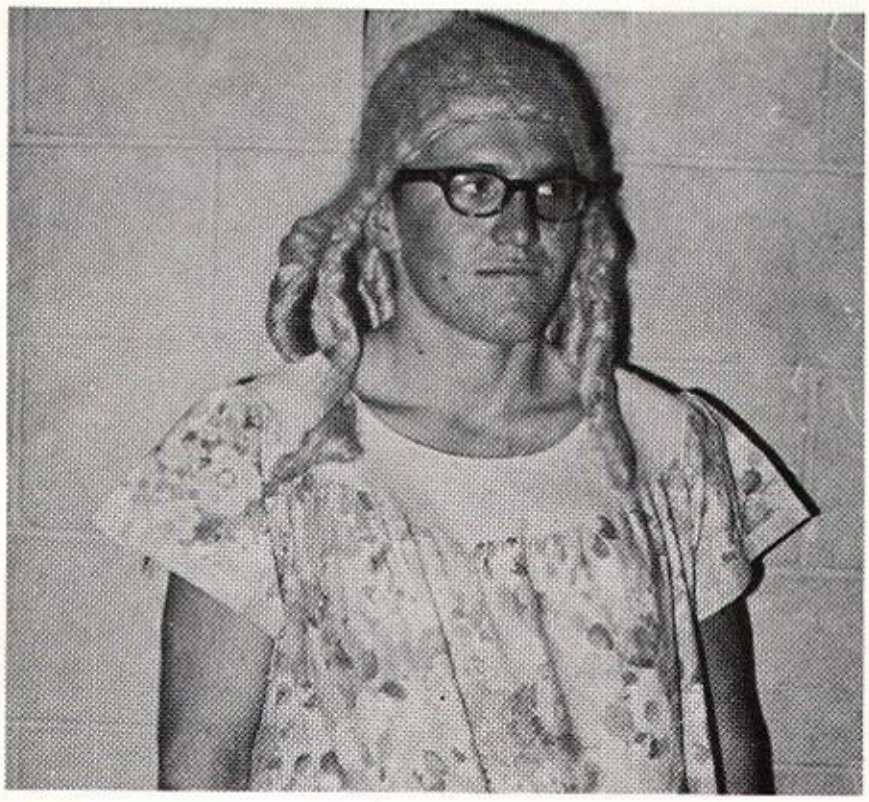
BEFORE Mr. Neilsen's house was built, Marsh Valley's back lot was drab, dreary, and ordinary.

DURING the year a miraculous change was wrought;

AFTER a wave of the carpenter's magic power saw.

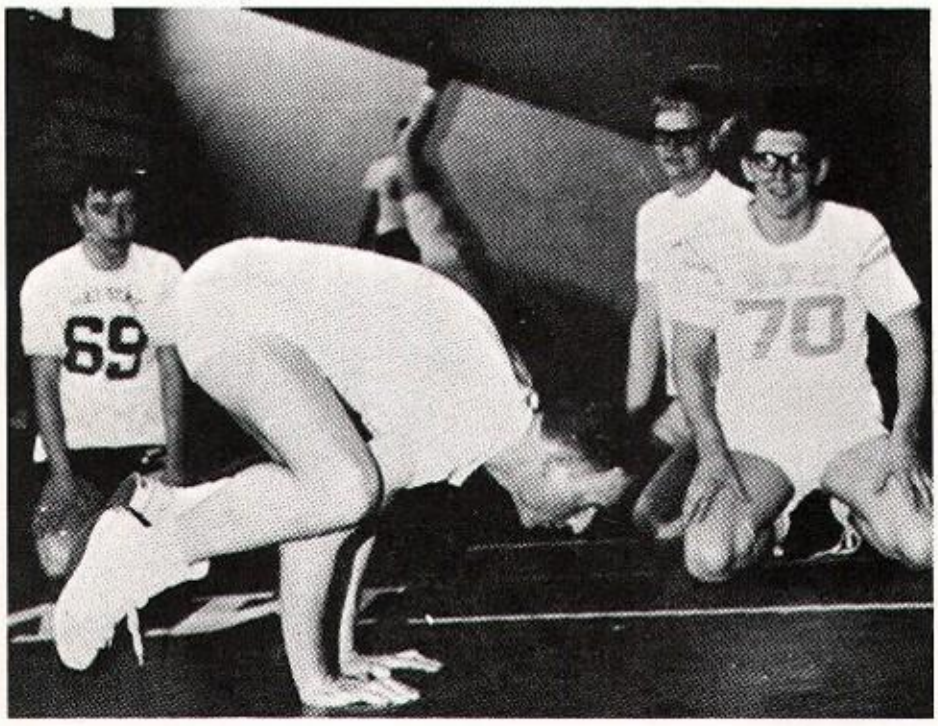
The Senior Trio, with ribbons and curls, are very charming and talented girls.

This Volkswagen, star of the junior assembly, discovered that parking space was often hard to find.



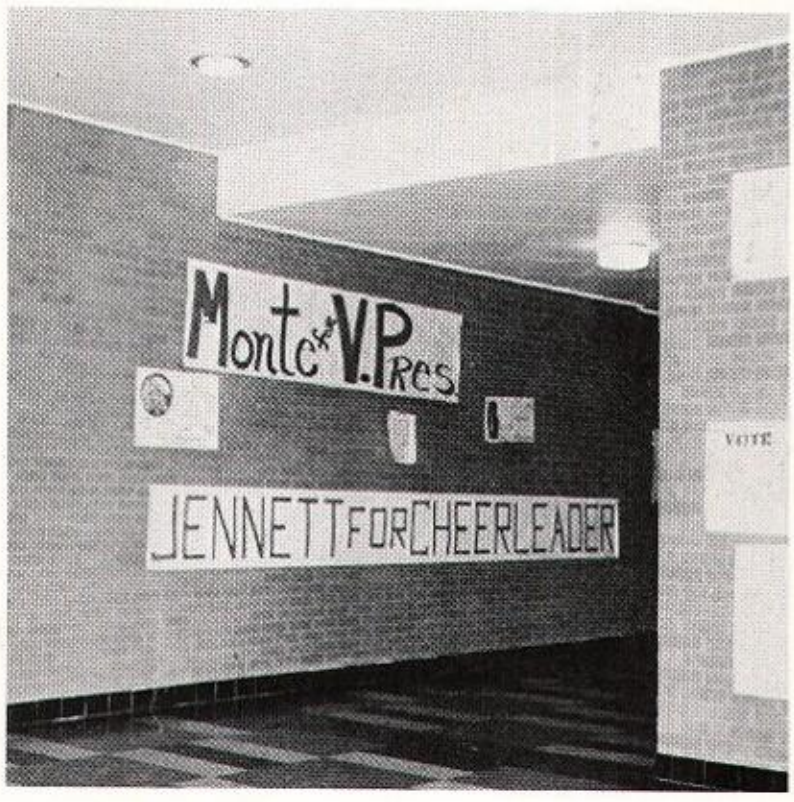
Miss Vance Casperson, our most likely candidate for Miss Marsh Valley enjoys a moment of publicity.

Members of the drill team perform during a basketball halftime.



Mr. Cunningham does the frog hand stand while his class looks on in admiration.

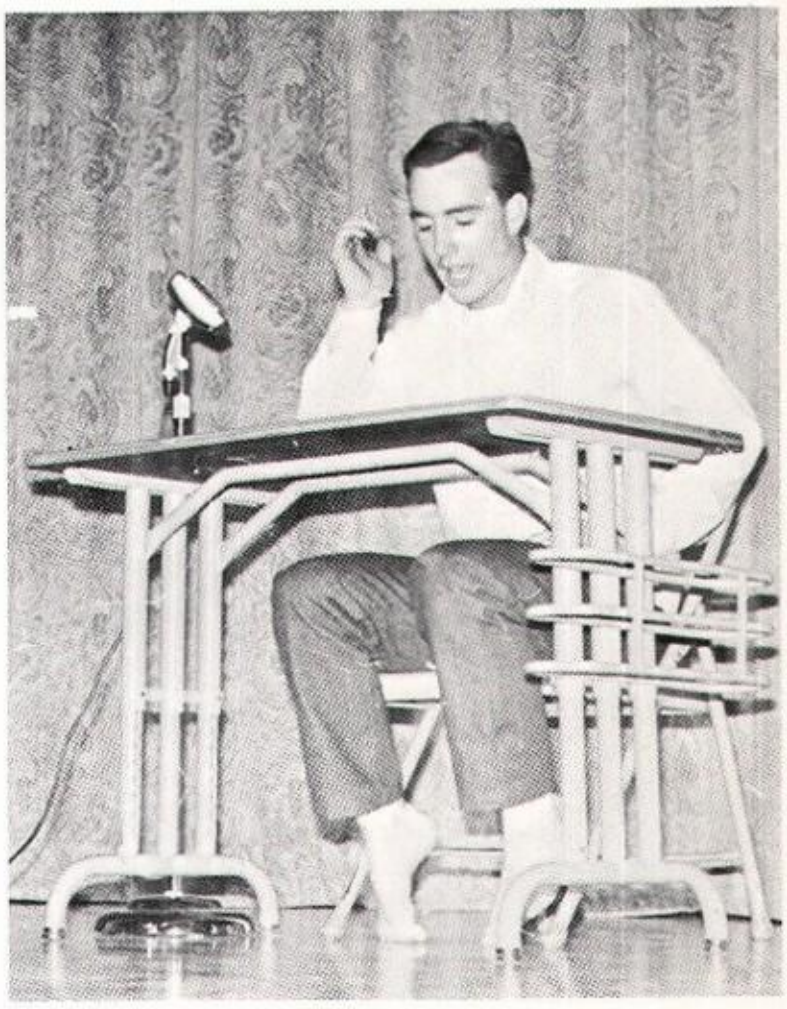
"MY BUDDY!!"



People were pestered by campaign posters plastered throughout our halls.

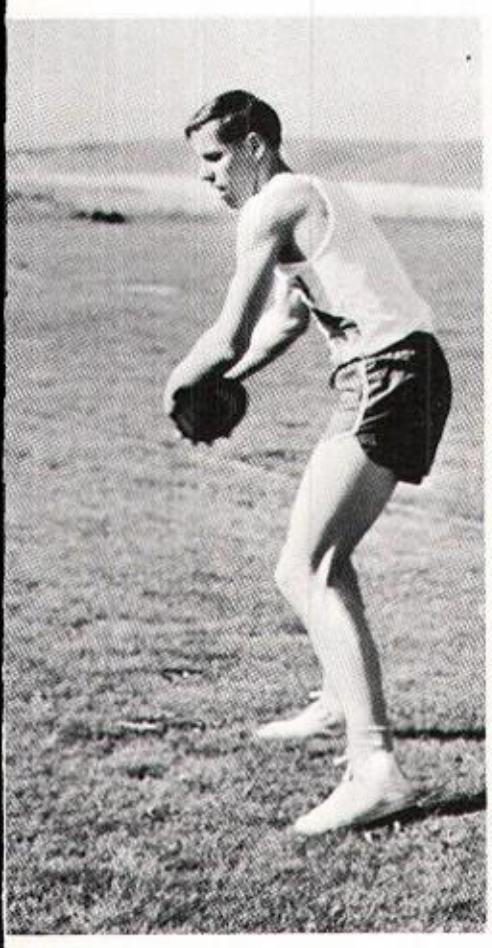
Wendy Davis accompanies the girls chorus as they strive to attain musical perfection.

Freshmen scholars "hit the books" with enthusiasm less noticeable in older students.



"And dis widdle piggy stayed home..."

Sheldon Kay, Harvey Gerber, and Darryl Fowler are in the office...Studying?



One for the money...

Two for the show...

Three to get ready...

And away we go!!

Dear Sir,
I met your friend about
a week ago and he told me that you might be in need of a good set of feet. I have a pair
that I would like to dispose of for a small sum.
Yours truly
Friend
Mack

I had no shoes and complained until
I met a man without any feet.
